

KURT STUKE

PROFESSIONAL OVERVIEW

A collaborative and results driven certified quality professional with a passion for driving positive change and improvement. A Lean Six Sigma Black Belt with a systems approach to overall quality management including quality planning, quality control, quality assurance, and quality improvement.

KNOWLEDGE MATRIX

ISO 9001 Quality Management	Lean Six Sigma
Organizational Leadership	Process Improvement
Auditing & Audit Program Management	Supply Chain Management & Assessments

SUMMARY

Kurt has over 20 years of experience within the quality and process improvement fields. He has a passion for finding creative ways to drive positive change. Kurt holds a doctorate in leadership as well as master's degrees in philosophy and theology. He is an adjunct faculty member at several universities and colleges, and in this role, fosters the exploration of organizational leadership, corporate social responsibility, business and ethics, decision analysis, organizational culture and more.

Recent publications may be found in the Journal of Quality and Participation, the Open Journal for Business & Management, the ASQ Lean Division Newsletter, and the ASQ Audit Division Newsletter. Recent speaking engagements include the Lean and Six Sigma World Conference, the Quality Show, the ASQ World Conference on Quality and Improvement, BOSCON, NECQ, and more.

Kurt is the Vice Chair of E-Initiative for ASQ's Quality Management Division. He is also a board member for the New Hampshire Chapter of the Association for Talent Development (ATD).

CERTIFICATIONS:

- Certified Manager of Quality and Organizational Excellence (ASQ)
 - Certified Quality Auditor (ASQ)
 - Certified Quality Improvement Associate (ASQ)
 - Certified Lean Six Sigma Black Belt (BMGI)
-

EDUCATION

Doctorate of Arts, Leadership
Franklin Pierce University

Master of Arts, Philosophy
Saint Louis University

Master of Arts, Theology
Notre Dame College

Bachelor of Arts, Philosophy
Saint Anselm College